NOMINATIONS FOR “FARMER OF THE YEAR”

Do you know anyone who has devoted their life to agriculture for more than twenty-five (25) years? Has this person been a resident of Juniata County for all of those twenty-five years? You will need to write a description as to why this person should be nominated to become the next Juniata County Fair’s “Farmer of the Year”. Be sure to include what makes this person different from other farmers who live in the Juniata County area.

The nominee will be honored at the opening ceremonies of the Juniata County Fair on Sunday, September 4, 2016 in the George Settlemyer Livestock Barn at 7:30pm. If you have been nominated and didn’t win, you can be nominated again.

All entries are judged by a point system, so be very detailed with your nomination.

We created this award since our fair has been an agricultural fair since its existence. The farming community surrounds the Juniata County Fairgrounds located in the center of the county. Ask a farmer why they want to farm? They will tell you it is being part of the 59,000 farm families in Pennsylvania who continue to be the stewards of over 7.7 million acres of farmland.

Nominations can be mailed to:

Juniata County Fair, Attention: Farmer of the Year Award, 308 West 8th Street, Port Royal, PA 17082

Nominations must be postmarked by Monday, August 8, 2016
